

Introduction

This lesson gives us a brief introduction to non-modifying algorithms.

Non-modifying algorithms are algorithms used for searching and counting elements. However using these algorithms, we can also check properties of ranges given in the algorithm, compare given ranges, or search for ranges given any range.

In the next lesson, we'll discuss how we can search for elements using the `find` keyword.