

Quick Quiz!

1

Which command is used to view a snapshot of currently running processes?

2

Which of these commands let you view current group of processes being handled by Shell?

3

To see every process running on the system, you can execute this command:

4

To get a root shell from your user account, which option will give you the result?

5

Which option will you use along with jobs to list only process IDs of the job's process group leader?

6

How will you switch to root user in shell?

7

Other than “man” or “info”, how will you display details regarding sudo command?

8

How can you edit files using sudo privileges?

9

Which of the following attribute is not shown by ps command? a) PID b) PPID c) tty d) size

10

Which option is used by ps command to get a detailed listing of process attributes?

Check Answers