

Overview

This lesson provides a general outline of how we will create a blog detail activity for our travel blog.

This chapter will cover how to create blog details screen for Travel Blog Application and learn how to:

- create HTTP client
- load, parse and display text data from the internet
- load images from the internet
- handle errors and recover from them

