Project Summary

In this project we have learned to used some important bash commands like <code>cat,head</code>, <code>tail,sort</code>, <code>uniq</code>, <code>cut</code>, <code>grep</code>, etc. in the context mining a csv formatted toy dataset consisting of rankings of the US academic Institutes. We will re-use these commands in a more complicated format in the upcoming chapters.