Quick Quiz on React!

Test your knowledge of React with this short quiz!

1 What is a React component in JavaScript?

2 There is a method in React component which is overidden to prevent updating the components. Which of the following is that method?

3 The data is passed to a component through:

4 How would you write a JavaScript function inside JSX?

5 Calling `setState` method inside `render()` does not generate any errors.

Is this statement True or False?

6 JSX is not a type-safe language. Is this statement True or False?

7 The main purpose of using lifecycle methods is:

8 What happens when you make multiple `setState()` calls within a function?

9 Can components refer to other components? Answer in yes or no.

10 The main focus of React is:

11 The `div` element that is defined inside a render method is an actual DOM element. Is this statement true or false?

Check Answers