Problem: The Republic of the Congo Flag with Gradients

Okay…

Just before you go about ranting about me forcing you to create flags, it isn't that bad.

It's really not about the flags, but cementing the concepts learned.

The Problem

The Republic of Congo has a pretty interesting flag. Here it is:

This one is a little different, huh?

Here's the playground:
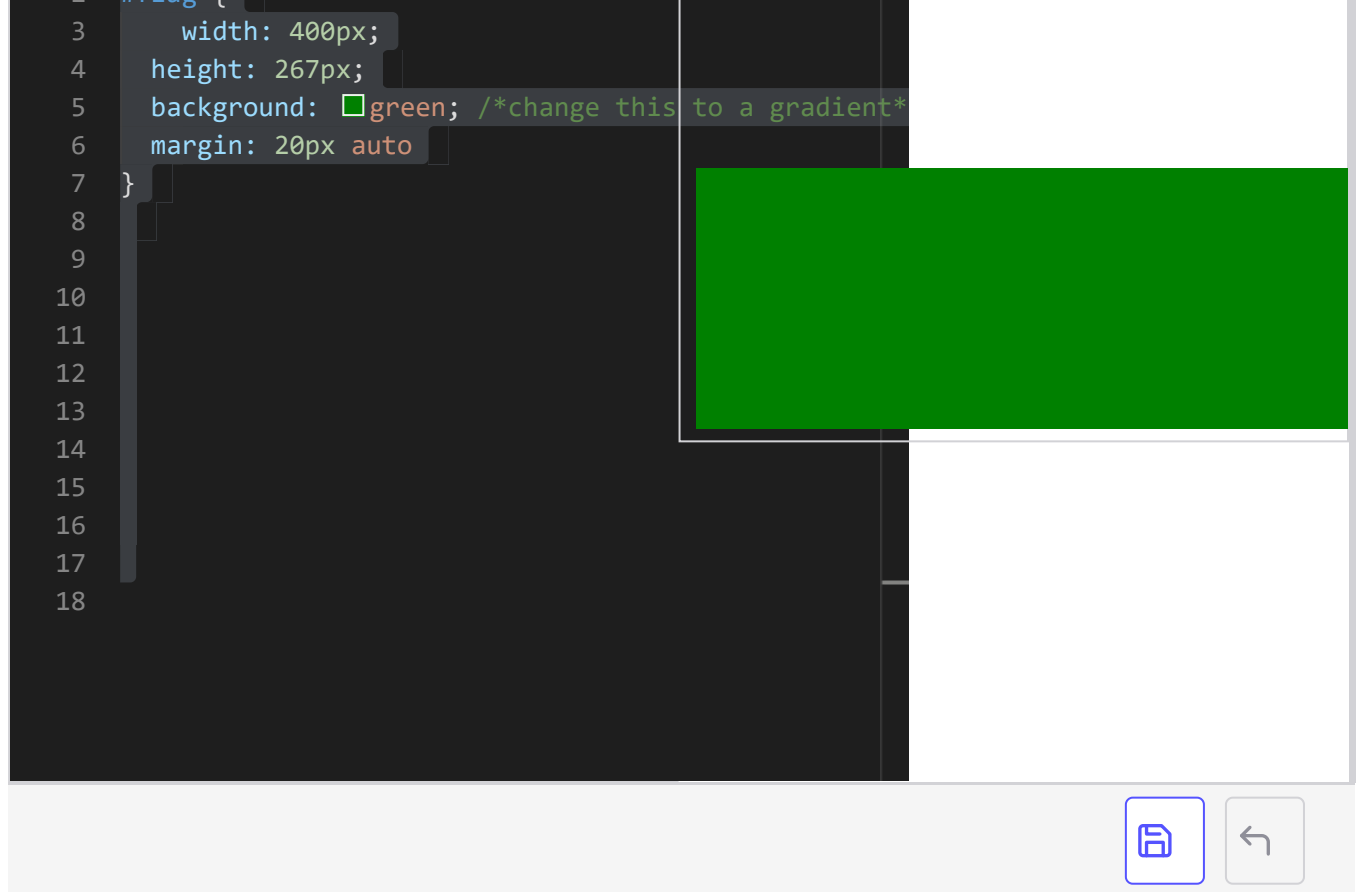

HTML   CSS   Output

| 1 |
| 2   #flag {

```
 3      width: 400px;
 4    height: 267px;
 5    background:  ■green; /change this to a gradient
 6    margin: 20px auto
 7  }
 8
 9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
```

Have fun with that!
